KIRC Year in Review 2008 online

The Kaho'olawe Island Reserve Commission today announced the online availability of the agency's Year in Review for FY 2008.

"We see Kaho'olawe as the piko of Hawai'i, not only in its geographic location, but as central to the hearts and minds of the people of Hawai'i who work to restore its slopes, rebuild its ecosystems, and perpetuate the health of its surrounding waters," said KIRC Executive Director Mike Nāho'opi'i. "Our Year in Review for FY 2008 – and those to follow – provides a snapshot of our work on Kaho'olawe, and allows us to mark and measure our progress in this historically and culturally critical endeavor."

The Commission's Year in Review for FY 2008 may be downloaded from the KIRC website at: <http://kahoolawe.hawaii.gov/access.shtml>. Hard copies are available for $10.00 from the Kaho'olawe Rehabilitation Trust Fund, c/o Kaho'olawe Island Reserve Commission, 811 Kolu St., Suite 201, Wailuku, HI 96793.
