

Restoration: Coastal and Upland Wetland Restoration of Kahoolawe

BACKGROUND

The purpose of this project is to enhance the temporary wetland sites at Keanakeiki and Lua ‘O Kealialalo. This will be completed through volunteer labor and project partners Maui Nui Seabird Recovery Project (MNSRP) and the Protect Kaho’olawe ‘Ohana (PKO). Activities include removing invasive plants and out planting natives.

DELIVERABLES

- Remove invasive species, plant native species and monitor through photo points
- 200 hours contribution from PKO
- 200 hours contribution from MNSRP

AWARD AMOUNT: $100,000

FUNDER: North American Wetland Conservation Act - USFWS

HIGHLIGHTS

- Drone surveys and boundary markers were installed

FINANCIAL UPDATE

SPENT
$0

BILLED
$0

RECEIVED
$0

PROJECT UPDATE: December 1, 2021 – January 31st, 2022

December and January accesses were canceled due to inclement weather. Future accesses will include completion of the baseline photo points.

Keanakeiki Work site (3.5 acres)

Lua ‘O Kealialalo Work site (20 acres)