

E Maka'ala Kākou!

BIO-SECURITY

The term “invasive species” is used in a variety of ways, but in Hawaii this term typically refers to species that are both:

1. harmful to the environment, economy, and/or human health, and
2. not native to Hawaii (i.e., species that were introduced by human assistance rather than by their own means of introduction).

